Horizontal Human Rights Law

John H. Knox

The American Journal of International Law, Vol. 102, No. 1 (Jan., 2008), pp. 1-47

...words, human rights law is aligned vertically, not horizontally. But that view has regularly been challenged. Most recently, in 2003, the United Nations Commission on Human Rights (Commission), historically the most important incubator of human rights agreements, received two proposed instruments that might appear to realign human rights law...
